

The Hospitality Committee for United Nations Delegations

invites you to join us for a virtual Feminist Walk Through Harlem: A Celebration of Remarkable Women

Thursday, October 8, 2020
10:30 A.M.

In honor of the 100th anniversary of women's suffrage in the United States, licensed New York City tour guide Leigh Hallingby will lead us on a virtual walk through both African American Harlem and Spanish Harlem. We will stop at the places where accomplished women, ranging from iconic to not so familiar, are honored. Stops include named buildings, murals and mosaics, plaques on the sidewalk, and commemorative street corners. And the women range from A'Leia Walker to Nicholasa Mohr to Zora Neale Hurston.

The tour is about 50 minutes, with slides and live commentary, followed by Q&A.

Please email the Hospitality Committee at hcund@un.org or Susan Barniker at sbarniker@gmail.com to register.
